ESTABLISHED 1833. FIRDAY EVENING, AUGUST 20, 1886. PRICE THREE CENTS

DEATH!

Is Promised to Seven of the Anarchists.

Spies, Schwab, Fielden, Fischer, Parsons, Engel and Lingg Condemned to the Gallows To-day.

Schwab's Wife Faints in the Court Room and Other Memorable Scenes.

THE ANARCHISTS.

The Whole Batch Condemned to Death.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—In the anarchists trial all were found guilty of murder and the penalty of death inflicted except on Neebe, who is given fifteen years in the penitentiary.

Nearly 2,000 people were gathered on Michigan street in front of the main entrance to the court house gazing up at the windows this morning. The prisoners were brought into the court room a few minutes later.

They presented about the usual appearance, though Spies and Fischer looked deathly pale. The jury then came and there was impressive silence as they filed in. The verdict was read:

"We, the jury, find the defendants, August Spies, Michael Schwab, Samuel Fielden, Albert R. Parsons, Adolph Fischer, George Engel and Louis Lingg, guilty of murder as charged in the indictment, and fix the penalty at death. We find defendant Oscar W. Neebe, guilty of murder in the manner and form as charged in the indictment and fix the penalty at imprisonment in the penitentiary for fifteen years."

Captain Black asked that the jury be polled. The jurymen answered with firm voices. Captain Black said he would desire to make a motion for a new trial. States Attorney Grinnell said it would be impossible to dispose of the motion during the present term, but by agreement the motion could be argued at the September term. This was agreed to by the defense and the prisoners filed out under the guidance of the bailiffs

Hardly had the jury left the room when a piercing shriek was heard, followed by the heavy falling of the wife of Schwab to the floor, to whom the result of the verdict had been interpreted. She was soon carried out by the police and soon recoverd. Mrs. Parsons looked haggard as she started to leave the court room, but maintained a moderate degree of composure. The crowd remained outside for an hour. It is understood the authorities now contemplate the immediate arrest of all persons even indirectly connected with the Haymarket tragedy, for conspiracy and in view of this knowledge, many of the active leaders hearing the outcome of the verdict are preparing to leave the city.

READING THE VERDICT.

During the reading of the verdict the prisoners were hidden from the view of everyone in the court room, by a cordon of police completly surrounding them and whatever immediate effect the reading of the verdict had upon them, could not be discerned. The motion for a new trial, it is expected, will be heard early next month. If it is overruled, Judge Gary will pronounce sentence and fix the date for carrying out the death penalty. The case will go then to the supreme court for review. It is the generally expressed view of lawyers, that the supreme court will not interfere, if Judge Gary refuses a new trial.

Rumor that Mr. Bryard Will Resign.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The World's Washington correspondent says the statement is made by a close friend of Secretary Bayard that as soon as the Mexican trouble is over the secretary will resign.

BLOTTED OUT.

A Sonora Town Entirely Swept Away by Floods.

NOGALES, Arizona, Aug. 20.—News has just been received here that the town of Saric, in Sonora, was entirely swept away by floods Saturday and Monday. The place had a population of 700. Not a house was left standing. Grain fields were flattened to the ground. No estimate of the damage or loss of life is given.

John Smith Killed.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., Aug. 20.—John Smith was killed in a well to-day, four miles east of this city.

CAMP GRANT.

The Second Day and the Scenes in Military Circles—Colonel Zollinger in Command.

This is the second day of the encampment and a pretty correct estimate places the number of soldiers at 600. Last night there were stirring scenes about the city. In the evening Gen. Phil Sheridan and his brother, Colonel Sheridan, went east in their special car. There was a great crowd at the depot to meet the modern Napoleon. Hon. Robert Lowry introduced the chieftain in a pleasant way and then the general greeted his comrades who cheered him to the echo. He regretted he could not wait and attend the encampment, but said he would be here next year if it was the desire of the old soldiers. A general handshaking followed and to a few personal and army friends he opened the commissary department. When the train pulled out a royal artillery salute was fired in honor of the leader of the American army.

Last night at 1:30 Gen. Rosecrans arrived and was escorted to the mansion of Mayor Muhler, by his Honor and Capt. Hugh M. Diehl. The General is a devout Catholic and attended early service at the Cathedral this morning, as is his custom at home. He will visit Camp Grant at 4:30 this afternoon under military escort, and in person he will greet the heroes and promising militia boys. He is assured of an ovation and the distinguished warrior deserves it.

Col. C. A. Zollinger is in command of Camp Grant to-day and the soldiers throng his tent to offer their congratulations. Colonel Zollinger is a born soldier and his comrades love him as a brother who is as true to their interests as he was to the union. He has placed Capt. O. G. Hopkins in command of artillery, Capt. J. M. Tyrrell in command of the militia and Capt. Tom Sullivan in command of the G. A. R. Besides Commander Zollinger has issued these orders:

GENERAL ORDER NO. 1.

For the government of the camp during the encampment, the following rules will be observed.

1. Reveille at 5 o'clock a. m.
2. Breakfast at 6 o'clock a. m.
3. Guard mount at 8 o'clock a. m.
4. Drill at 9 o'clock a. m.
5. Dinner at 12 o'clock m.
6. Dress parade at 5 o'clock p. m.
7. Supper at 6 o'clock p. m.

By command of

C. A. ZOLLINGER, Col. Comd'g.
EMORY G. MELENDY, A. A. A. G.

CIRCULAR ORDER NO. 1.

The officers designated to command the different departments of the camp will be held responsible for the proper police regulations of the camp, and it is expected that great care will be exercised in keeping the camp clean.

[Official.] C. A. ZOLLINGER,
Colonel Commanding.
EMORY G. MELENDY, A. A. A. G.

The encampment is an assured success and all day stranger civilians and military companies and Grand Army posts have thronged into town, swelling the population possibly 1,500 more than it usually is. The general decorations are superb and everyone has a welcome for our guests.

To-night there will be a big camp fire and a great time. This program will be repeated to-morrow evening with General Gibson in command.

TO-MORROW.

The feature is to be the industrial and military parade in the afternoon and the following merchants have signified their intention to join the military in the procession:

INDUSTRIAL PARADE.

We the undersigned business men and manufacturers of Fort Wayne and vicinits, hereby agree to represent our respective enterprises in the industrial parade, to take place Saturday, Aug. 21, in Fort Wayne, during the soldiers' reunion. We intend to display our particular branch of Fort Wayne industry in as attractive a manner as possible, to reflect credit upon ourselves as well as the Summit City.

Procession to be reviewed by General W. S. Rosecrans and other distinguished visitors.

Business Failures.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The business failures during the last seven days in the United States were 161; Canada, 25.

WHILE on his recent visit to Detroit Lake, in Minnesota, William Penn Nixon, of the Chicago Inter Ocean, accompanied by his wife, visited White Earth Indian Agency. One morning he was chatting with Agent Sheehan, who was dilating upon the rapid progress made by the aborigines, when an Indian girl dashed up to the d or upon a pretty pony, dismounted, and, taking the train of her riding habit on her arm, walked into the agency, presented a certificate from the surveyor in regard to fees paid, and said she wished a patent for her land. "Here," said Agent Sheehan, "is a good illustration of just what we were speaking about." The Indian girl, though a full blood, made an attractive picture in her bright riding habit, and the editor spode up, saying: "By the way, how can I secure some land here?" "Where do you live," asked the red girl. "In Chicago," replied the philosopher of the daily press. "Oh, then, you'll have to marry me in order to obtain land here on the reservation," piquantly spoke up the maid. "But I am already married; here is my wife." "Yes, but she is old; I am young; I hear you can easily get a divorce in Chicago. Come here, marry me, and you can have land." Her entreaties were so earnest and arguments so strong that this editor was compelled to use his utmost strategy in order to prevent completing the "treaty" with the Indian maid.

Three Men of the Time.

I think I am but speaking the sentiments of many Americans when I say that Thomas Carlyle, John Ruskin and one man more, at a great distance, seems to me the three men who, in our day, have spoken wisdom in English; that we could better dismiss into oblivion the utterances of England for thirty years past, including what she thinks her "science," her newspaper gabble, and her parliamentary and pulpit "eloquence," and the "manifestos," of all her "statesmen," so-called, better far than lose the words of John Ruskin, Thomas Carlyle or Alfred Tennyson.—Hugh Miller Thompson.

UNION!

Adding Strength to The Hoosier Democrats.

The Congressional Complication Gradually Clearing Away and Success is Certain as Sunshine.

The Michigan Fusion Tickets—Pennsylvania Democrats and Other News.

POLITICS.

The Democratic State Committee Meets—Other News of Interest.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 20.—The democratic state central committee is in session. The committee will elect a secretary and treasurer and will outline the plan of the coming campaign. Chairman Henderson, of the democratic committee, and Chairman Houston, of the republican committee, have had their heads together and have agreed to suggest to their respective bodies that the campaign be not unavoidably protracted; that it begin on both sides simultaneously, and that the opening date be about September 15. These suggestions will be considered to-day. If they are accepted, a still hunt will be carried on until the date fixed on, when there will be a discharge of oratory and enthusiasm all along the line.

But the Indianapolis district is chiefly concerned in the disposition of the congressional row. The question as to who shall be recognized as the nominee will be before the committee, and the chairman has invited various eminent representatives of both Bynum and Bailey to attend its meetings. The friends of Mr. Bynum are to-day feeling very comfortable in the belief that their candidate cannot be dislodged.

Charlie Jewett was in town to-day. He comes fresh from the third congressional district, where all the talk relates to the retirement of Stockslager from the congressional race. This withdrawal according to Jewett, was unexpected by Stockslager's friends, and was so great a surprise that many of them refused to believe it. It leaves the Stockslager interest in an unfortunate condition, as it claims to have held the only legitimate congressional convention. If a new candidate is not named by this interest, it will be equivalent to a recognition of the claims of the Howard faction. Mr. Jewett expressed himself as personally passive in the matter, but the situation seemed to him to be about as suggested above. With Stockslager out of the race and if no one is named to succeed him, Howard will be assured of election.

It is stated to be Mr. Bynum's purpose to go before the democratic state central committee to-day and express to that body his willingness for the members to pass upon the legality of his nomination, he to abide by the decision of the committee. If the mugwump would do the same, harmony might once more prevail in the democratic camp.

Chairman Henderson, of the democratic central committee, is smiling to-day over the prospects of his party in Indiana. The withdrawal of Stockslager in the third district, and the settlement of the wrangle in the first, is, to Mr. Henderson, assurance of victory in the state. The only cloud upon the horizon now is the Baily-Bynum contention, and this, the chairman thinks, will be cleared away. He cannot say how or when, but his faith is pinned on something lofty, and he sees the democracy united, victorious and invincible, with the state ticket elected by at least as large a majority as was given to Hendricks, 7,500, the legislature solid in both houses and an unlimited reign in national affairs.

J. J. Todd, of Bluffton, who has been named as a posible candidate on the republican ticket for lieutenant governor, is in the city. He says he is not an avowed candidate, and his name has been used by his friends, not with his consent. He would like to see John H. Baker, of Goshen, nominated, but understands that he is not willing to be a candidate. The reporter judged that Mr. Todd is "in the hands of his friends."

It is understood that the democratic executive committee will be as follows: Hon. Joseph E. McDonald, James H. Rice, John A. Holman, W. J. Craig, Simon P. Sheerin, Israel Curry, of Boone county, and Ebenezer Henderson, of Morgan. Mr. Frenzel will be the treasurer.

D. M. Blount, president of Butler university, was yestesday nominated for congress by the prohibitionists of the Indianapolis district at Greenfield.

Hon. John E. Lamb has challenged his competitor, Mr. Johnston, for a joint debate in each county of the Eigth district. Johnson has not been heard from at this writing. The political pot seems eager to boil in western Indiana.

MICHIGAN FUSION.

The greenback and democratic convention of Michigan met at Grand Rapids and agreed to divide the state ticket. Each adopted a platform and made the following nominations:

The democrats: For lieutenant governor, S. S. Curry; auditor general, Col J. D. Farrer; secretary of state, P. B. Watchel; superintendent of public instruction, David Parsons; attorney general, J. C. Donnelly.

The greenbackers: Governor, Hon. G. L. Yaple; state treasurer, William G. Baird; state land commissioner, William D. Fuller; member of state board of education, J. W. Turner.

PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRATS.

The Pennsylvania democratic convention has nominated Chauncey F. Black, of York county, for governor; Robert Bruce Ricketts, for lieutenant governor; Maxwell Stevenson, congressman-at-large; J. Simpson Africa, secretary of internal affairs; W. J. Brennan, auditor. The platform reaffirms the Chicago national platform; indorses President Cleveland, and laments the recent deaths of Tilden, Hendricks, McClellan, Seymour and Hancock.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Aug. 20.—The republican congressional convention in the Second district of Iowa broke in two, the result being the nomination of Samuel J. Kirkwood and T. J. O'Meara. In the Eighth district of Wisconsin W. T. Pierce was renominated.

GEN. LOGAN'S PARTY.

Received With the Greatest Enthusiasm in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—M. H. De Young, of the Chronicle, entertained General Logan, Governor Alger, General Howard, and a party of about thirty distinguished guests last night and a distinguished assembly greeted them. This morning they start on their overland trip to Portland Oregon, expecting to arrive there Monday next. The generals are received with great enthusiasm everywhere. They will be in the west two weeks yet.

Owen Renominated.

VALPARAISO, Aug. 19.—Hon. W. D. Owen was yesterday renominated for congress by the republicans of the Tenth congressional convention by acclamation.

Big Cattle Trade.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—About 24,000 cattle have within two days been thrown upon the Chicago market, causing a break of nearly twenty cents per 100 pounds. The best beeves sell at $5.15, and native steers as low as $3.10. About 15,000 hogs were received yesterday. The heaviest packing grades brought $4.50@5.15. With light arrivals, the best sheep command $4.25.

A Dreadful Story.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—M. J. Storen, a bricklayer, residing at No. 482 Second avenue, New York, complained to the district attorney that he was blacklisted by the bricklayers' union until one of his children starved to death and he had no food. If his story proves true, the officers of the union will be indicted for conspiracy.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Consul Greenbaum, of Samoa, who is in Washington, will resign.

Official information of a desire of Geronimo to surrender has been received at the war department.

Died of His Injuries.

LITCHFIELD, Ill., Aug. 20.—Patrick Waters, the man who was seriously injured on the Wabash road here, died yesterday morning. The coroner held an inquest and the railway was held blameless.

SAM JONES told his hearers at Kansas City the other day that the people who accuse him of having "chawed" tobacco since he left Chicago ought to be in the penitentiary. He then added: "A man who is on the way to the New Jerusalem hasn't got time to stop and throw rocks at every dog that runs out and barks at him. I am the locomotive going right on, and the little dogs run out and bark, but I don't stop to throw coal at them."

SCENES!

Of Great Distress at Galveston.

A Portion of the City is Under Water and a Fierce Gale Raged There Last Night.

The Mexican and American Troops Menacingly Face Each Other.

A DELUGE

Swoops Suddenly Down on Galveston.

GALVESTON, Texas, Aug. 20.—1:45 a. m.—A violent easterly gale prevails here, the wind blowing at the rate of forty-five miles an hour and constantly increasing in velocity. The whole southern and southwestern portion of the city is inundated by water and many families have been driven out. The street railway along the beach has been torn up and the waters of the gulf are now breaking over the lower gallery of the Beach hotel. Much apprehension is felt for the families residing at the exposed points and for the shipping anchored in the outer roads. Heavy dashes of rain are falling occasionally and the night is intensely dark.

LOOKS LIKE WAR.

Mexican and American Troops Facing Each Other.

LAREDO, Texas, Aug. 20.—News having arrived here that the Mexican authoritives have fortified a small town some fifty miles up the river called Pan, and placed a detachment of sixty troops there, the commandant of Fort McIntosh, Colonel Bernard, detailed twenty men from this post who left here yesterday and will remain for the present at Palifax, opposite Pan, on this side of the river, as rumors had arrived that the Mexicans had crossed the river to this side. Palafax is a deserted mining town with but few inhabitants, but large ranches are adjacent to it and could easily be plundered.

FOREIGN NEWS.

It is Presented in a Readable Way.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The British steamer Aberdeen, from Hankon for London foundered while leaving the China sea. Part of her crew were drowned.

The stock market is buoyant to day under the influence of the speeches made by the minister in parliament last night.

The Parnellite members of parliament resolved to discuss Irish affairs, especially the Belfast riots, during the debate in reply to the speech from the throne. Mr. Parnell's organ reiterates the declaration that there will be war to the knife against Lord Salisbury. The Tories want time and a policy of coercion is deemed unwise by the Salisbury government. The announcement of an Irish programme will be staved off till February and commissions in the meantime will investigate land and other questions.

BELFAST, Aug. 20.—The Protestants here are very much irritated over Lord Randolph Churchill's defense of the police, who have been engaged here during the riots. The Protestants assert that the police officials have contrived to mislead Lord Randolph and declare that the fact of the case warrant suspicion that a conspiracy exists between the police and Catholics of Belfast.

MELBOURNE, Aug. 20.—The United States man-of-war Mahican has sailed for Samoan Islands. She will remain there during the sittings of the commission appointed to settle the Samoan affairs.

DUBLIN, Aug. 20.—The Duke of Leinster has arranged to sell his tenants a large portion of his Kildare estate on an eighteen year purchase plan.

It will be noticed that talk of a Lake Shore extension from Brimfield, and the Grand Rapids and Indiana extension from Lagrange are apt to occur simultaneously.

The Warsaw Union says: "A gentleman by the name of Henry Stanley, of Noble county, was nominated by the pseudo democrats of the 12th district against Judge Lowry. If these democrats only saw our republicans laugh in their sleeves over their foolish conduct, they would not only quit it, but go into the back yard and kick themselves."

The uniform rank C. K. of A. held a meeting last night and elected the following officers: President, Anton Kalbacher; vice-president, J. Rohle; secretary, J. B. Monning; treasurer, Louis Fox; executive committee, P. Ryan, Alex. Spereisen, K. Baker. The commandery will escort the Emmet Rifles to the cathedral next Sunday at high mass.

CHOICE BITS.

The News That is Culled for the "Sentinel" Readers.

A tough Uncle Tom's Cabin show was mobbed at Winnemac.

Next week's issue will be the last of the Rome City Clipper.

The wood and coal dealers of Lafayette have signed an agreement to hereafter sell for cash only.

John Brown, a wealthy farmer living in Warsaw, Ind., was robbed of $450 on last Monday during the closing day of the reunion.

The Knights of Pythias members and the Uniform Rank, Louis N. Andrews, had a gala time at Peru Wednesday in their muster in. The rank and file membership numbers thirty members.

Deputy Commissioner Stockslager, of the land office, having received word from the president that he would have to withdraw from his congressional contest in Indiana or leave the department, has chosen the former.

Rev. Sam Jones was advertised to be at the Acton camp meeting and 20,000 people gathered to hear him. Mr. Jones was 500 miles away and never contracted to be there. It was a swindle that reacts.

The forty-seventh session of the Indiana annual conference of the African M. E. church will convene in Vincennes, August 26, and continue one week. The Indiana conference comprises the states of Indiana and Michigan.

Rev. L. W. Munhall, of Indianapolis, well known in this city, was telegraphed to recently to take charge of the Urbana, Ohio, camp meeting. He replied asking whether there were Sunday trains, Sunday gate fees, etc. The reply was that they took gate fees on Sunday, whereupon Dr. Munhall told the managers there was not enough money in Ohio to get him to come there. Dr. Munhall has the courage of his convictions.

Monday evening the weavers employed in the Muncie bagging factory at Muncie struck on account of a reduction in their wages, and walked out. On account of the strike the flax mill was shut down. Wednesday morning new hands were selected from a large number of applicants, work was resumed, and the factory is now running with as large force as before. The strike seems to have been the result of a misunderstanding as much as anything else.

It is fair to believe what the Kendallville Standard, a republican paper, has to say of the anti-Lowry convention. It says over one hundred men participated in the convention. This is no doubt exaggerated. There was perhaps seventy-five men in the convention. Conceding that all of them can control their individual votes, a very doubtful thing, Lowry's majority in the district will be reduced to two thousand and five hundred, provided of course that White can carry his party vote. The Standard does not make the convention the "howling success" the Gazette had it; nor does it get as much "grey hair" in the crowd.

The body of Ray Callen, drowned in Clear lake, Steuben county, has not been recovered, although a professional diver was secured from Detroit. The Angola Herald adds: "The diver goes down and remains from five to forty-five minutes; he gives us the following information: After going out from the shore from five to eight rods, there is a sudden offset, which goes down like a mountain side for 100 feet. This bank is full of springs, which causes the water to be as cold as ice at the bottom; when at the bottom he sinks into mud to his waist; a white substance rises from the bottom, when he reaches it and moves it, which prevents him seeing more than two feet. He finished the day in vain search, and announced that he would work Tuesday forenoon. The diver claims to have taken seventy bodies out of the water this summer. He received a telegram Monday to go to another place."

A Present for General Sheridan.

San Francisco Alta.

The following letter was received yesterday by Gen. Samuel W. Backus.

OGDEN, Utah, Aug. 4, 1886.

Friend and Comrade Backus.

DEAR SIR—I send you, per bearer, a present for Gen. Phil H. Sheridan. As I cannot be there to present it myself, please do me the favor to present it as a substitute for yours truly,

L. M'CARTAY,
Ex-Sergeant Company F, California Battalion, one of Phil Sheridan's old scouts.

The "present for Gen. Phil H. Sheridan" is a wildcat of the wildest possible type, which "one of Phil Sheridan's old scouts" has sent in a box to the care of General Backus. The animal is now in the postoffice, and if any one doubts the genuineness of the brute the doubter can satisfy himself by interviewing the animal, who shows a pair of fiery, wicked eyes and snarls savagely. General Sheridan is not here to receive the present in person, and General Backus, who has no particular use for wildcats, is at a loss to know what to do with the animal.

Attention!

Of dealers is called to the large consignment of California Grapes now at the corner of Harrison and Superior streets.

FRIDAY, AUG. 20, 1886.

A LITTLE boy playing in an old log-house at Richwoods, Mo., lost a marble through the floor, and crawled under the house to get it. He found there a tin pail full of gold and silver coin. The amount proved to be $1,000. It was the property of an old gentleman of the place, who had hidden it there in 1864, and afterward, not finding it readily thought it had been stolen.

SHOW a man that you court his society, and it is a signal for him to treat you with neglect and contumely. Humor his passions, and he despises you as a sycophant. Pay implicit deference to his opinion, and he laughs at you for your folly. In all, he views you with contempt as the creature of his will and the slave of his caprice. Whatever thou mayest do, solicit not friendship.

WHEN the patent granolithic sidewalk pavement is first put down, it is very sticky, but it hardens quickly. This is why a young couple of Bridgeport, who stood on a fresh slab of composition while bidding each other good night, had to be dug out with a pickax. Their shoes were ruined, but they were very grateful to the night watchman who released them, and who promised not to tell.

A GREAT many teachers think it smart to bother and confuse pupils, and seem to believe that such is good mental training. Ancient arithmetics contained what were termed catch problems, only designed for such purposes. The system is all wrong, and results in no good. An exchange asserts that "a teacher recently set her class the following task 'over Sunday': From 880,788,889 deduct 629 until nothing remains. The poor girls figured and figured for hours without making much headway; finally, their tears attracted the attention of the parents. A simple division will show that the figure 629 is contained in the larger one no less than 1,400,300 times. Allowing three deductions a minute and twelve hours' work a day, it would take over 600 days to do what had been given the girls as a Sunday task.'" What ought to be done with a teacher who would give such a task?

The warm weather often has a depressing and debilitating effect. Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes all languor and lassitude.

THE highest building in the world is the spire to St. Peter's Church, Rome, 518 feet.

SINCE Jesse Pomeroy, of Massachusetts, first revealed to a shocked and disgusted world the possibilities of original sin and total depravity, there has been no other paradox of iniquity and enigma of wickedness like him until William Sells, of Kansas, arrived upon the scene. One morning in March last he appeared at a neighbor's and begged them to come to his house, as an unknown man had broken in and, he feared, murdered his parents. The house was found besmeared with blood. The heads of his father, mother, and sister were crushed and their throats cut, while in the boy's own bed lay his brother, his skull smashed in, an eye chopped out and the throat cut like the others. The boy stood outside the house while this investigation was going on, displaying no emotion whatever when told the horrible story. He went quietly away to a neighbor's house, where he slept soundly until the morning. No tracks were found outside the house, while a wash-basin of bloody water, and the washed hands of the boy with the marks of blood outlined on his wrist, showed with absolute certainty who the criminal was. He denied his guilt, declaring that he must have been walking in his sleep or temporarily insane. Many of his friends are inclined to accept that explanation. He had hitherto borne so good a reputation that his relatives and acquaintances cannot make up their minds to credit such unmitigated depravity. Nevertheless he was convicted of murder in the first degree, and sentenced to be hung. Under the Kansas law the Governor has the power to indefinitely suspend sentence, and it is thought the boy will be imprisoned for life. This is certainly the least the community should put up with; for so terrible a sleep-walker, so dangerous a temporary lunatic, ought not to be allowed his freedom even for twenty-four hours. Like Jesse Pomeroy, having once tasted blood, he would be as safe running loose among his fellow-creatures as a man-eating tiger of Bengal.

The pain and misery suffered by those who are afflicted with dyspepsia are indescribable. The distress of the body is equalled or surpassed by the confusion and tortures of the mind, thus making its victims suffer double affliction. The relief which is given by Hood's Sarsaparilla has caused thousands to be thankful for this great medicine. It dispels the cause of dyspepsia, and tones up the digestive organs. Try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

For over a quarter of a century Physicians have prescribed NICHOLS' BARK AND IRON, as a reliable and valuable remedy for dyspepsia and general debility.

Col. C. A. Zollinger arrived from Indianapolis last night and brought with him a check for $4,362, back pension money for Andy McClure, of the Rich hotel.

The Angola Herald hoists the name of Judge Lowry for congress after a little wait. The Herald is a plendid weekly paper and shows how sentiment is drifting towards Mr. Lowry.

Mr. and Mrs. George Saylor, of this city, accompanied by Mrs. O. F. Kraner and daughter, of Paulding, Ohio, left this morning for Rome City, where they will remain a short time in Mr. Sayler's cottage.

Clara, the nine year old daughter of Mrs. Minnie Anweiler, of 165 Jackson street, who died yesterday of brain fever will be buried at 2 o'clock, Sunday afternoon in the Lutheran cemetery. The friends of the family are invited to attend the funeral without further notice.

The Adams county commissioners have ordered an election for September 14 to decide whether a tax of $5,000 shall be levied to aid in the construction of the Dayton and Chicago railway through that county to Fort Wayne. The vote will doubtless result in favor of the tax.

All kinds of furniture at 19 west Main street.

Col. R. S. Roberston is at Indianapolis.

Frank McGovern is the proud papa of a new girl baby.

The weather indications for Indiana are fair weather, and slightly warmer.

Thieves stole a lot of ropes from the new St. Mary's church, now under construction.

Mayor Muhler discharged a vagrant this morning. This was the extent of the police business.

Mike Cushing and Maggie McDonnell, who were married the other day, eloped. The groom is 35 years old and the bride sweet sixteen.

Miss Zadie Troutman and Miss Mollie Croningshield, of Bluffton, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. N. Conover, of East Wayne street.

The Wabash shops will close to-morrow afternoon and Monday afternoon to give the boys a chance to see the procession and sham battle.

Last night the lottery of a cow took place at Martin Weyer's residence. No. eighteen was the lucky one, and the owner can call for his milker.

The five year old son of Prof. Zucker, of Concordia college, climbed on a vehicle near his home on Walter street and in his manouvers he got his foot caught into one of the wheels and the bones of the lad's legs were fractured.

During the past two weeks Superintendent Canniff, of the Fort Wayne branch of the Lake Shore road, has been busy perfecting a steam car, that is, attaching a small upright engine and boiler to a hand car, to save the labor of pumping After many drawbacks and walk backs between stations, he has now a means of getting from one station to another without the aid of the old fashioned "Armstrong" power, and make better time. Last evening a trip to Jonesville was made in thirteen minutes from Hillsdale, his home.

Yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock occurred the death of Mr. W. A. Lassell, at his late residence, 104 Barr street, of typhoid fever, aged thirty-six years. Mr. Lassell had for a number of years represented the Rogers Fence company, of Cleveland, and was the general agent for the Buckeye feed mill, with an office on West Main street, but of late was located on East Columbia street. He was an exemplary young man, loved and respected by a large circle of friends who will be surprised to learn of his death. The remains were to-day taken to Peabody, Ind., where the interment will take place.

Hon. A. P. Edgerton came here last night from Lafayette. The board of trustees of Purdue university publish a statement exonerating Prof. J. H. Smart, president of the college and formerly of Fort Wayne, from all the charges recently made against him by a dismissed teacher and the Lafayette Journal. Mr. Edgerton and five other trustees sign the report which concludes: "The board cannot at this time fail to express its entire confidence in the character and integrity of President Smart, and it believes that the success of the university will be enlarged and extended by his continued devotion to its interests."

The funeral of the late Daniel Oplegger will take place from his late residence, No. 72 Pontiac street, Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Friends of the deceased are invited to attend without further notice.

Foreman Ernest Rehling, of the Wabash shop, has returned from Peru, where he was equipping the passenger engines of the Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago branch with Barnes' spark arrester and smoke consuming stack.

A telegram from Fort Wayne reads: "At a meeting of delegates from Knights of Labor assemblies in northern Indiana held in this city, steps were taken looking to the formation of a state assembly, and a meeting will be called, to be held at Indianapolis during the coming state fair. This movement is purely a mattel of business, and has no political significance whatever, except that it will enable the Knights of any state to consolidate and act as a unit on all questions."

The joint representative convention between Allen and Huntington counties meets here to-morrow afternoon in the circuit court room to nominate a candidate for representative. Hon. B. F. Ibach will be presented by Huntington county. Mr. W. S. Oppenheim is a candidate from this county. The republican Knights of Labor will present C. A. Bookwalter, a republican from the Gazette, for endorsement, and the democratic Knights of Labor will present George Benson, of the Journal, a democrat, for the nomination.

At Plymouth, during a fit of jealousy last evening, Mrs. V. P. Kirk attempted to throw carbolic acid in the face of her husband. Her son interfered and the acid was scattered over all three. Mr. Kirk may lose one eye, the son, will probably, lose a hand, and Mrs. Kirk is badly burned about the face. Mr. Kirk is a prominent lawyer and an ex-doorkeeper of the state senate. He has not been living with his wife for some time, and they have had a great deal of domestic trouble. She accused him of intimacy with other women.

It is fair to believe what the Kendallville Standard, a republican paper, has to say of the anti-Lowry convention. It says over one hundred men participated in the convention. This is no doubt exaggerated. There was perhaps seventy-five men in the convention Conceding that all of them can control their individual votes, a very doubtful thing, Lowry's majority in the district will be reduced to two thousand and five hundred, provided of course that White can carry his party vote. The Standard does not make the convention the "howling success" the Gazette had it; nor does it get as much "grey hair" in the crowd.

DR. YOUNGE.

He Bobs up Serenely With Warrants for Swann, Harper and Sullivan.

Dr. J. W. Younge went to Bluffton last night, and having found evidence of the circulation of circulars denouncing him as a perjurer, etc., he at once filed affidavits against Capt. Scott Swann, Capt. Jim Harper and Tom Sullivan, charging them with criminal libel. Warrants were issued and Sheriff Harry Kirkwood accompanied Dr. Younge to this city this morning. The sheriff did not proceed at once to arrest his men, but was at last accounts consulting lawyers, together with Sheriff Nelson, whom he summoned to assist him.

H. C. Hanna hurried to the encampment grounds and told Swann, Harper and Sullivan not to venture to the city. They are pretty mad, but it is evident more is in store for them as the doctor proceeded at once to Hartford City and will proceed similarly there against the encampment promoters. The doctor hopes to have the gentlemen dragged from their interests here and taken to Bluffton and Hartford City to appear and furnish bond for trial.

Attorneys say, however, they can give bond here, but immediate trouble is obviated as the warrants from Bluffton were found defective and Sheriff Kirkwood at once returned home to mend them. He says he will make the arrests to-morrow, but time will tell.

DEATH!

Is Promised to Seven of the Anarchists.

Spies, Schwab, Fielden, Fischer, Parsons, Engel and Lingg Condemned to the Gallows To-day.

Schwab's Wife Faints in the Court Room and Other Memorable Scenes.

THE ANARCHISTS.

The Whole Batch Condemned to Death.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—In the anarchists trial all were found guilty of murder and the penalty of death inflicted except on Neebe, who is given fifteen years in the penitentiary.

Nearly 2,000 people were gathered on Michigan street in front of the main entrance to the court house gazing up at the windows this morning. The prisoners were brought into the court room a few minutes later.

They presented about the usual appearance, though Spies and Fischer looked deathly pale. The jury then came and there was impressive silence as they filed in. The verdict was read:

"We, the jury, find the defendants, August Spies, Michael Schwab, Samuel Fielden, Albert R. Parsons, Adolph Fischer, George Engel and Louis Lingg, guilty of murder as charged in the indictment, and fix the penalty at death. We find defendant Oscar W. Neebe, guilty of murder in the manner and form as charged in the indictment and fix the penalty at imprisonment in the penitentiary for fifteen years."

Captain Black asked that the jury be polled. The jurymen answered with firm voices. Captain Black said he would desire to make a motion for a new trial. States Attorney Grinnell said it would be impossible to dispose of the motion during the present term, but by agreement the motion could be argued at the September term. This was agreed to by the defense and the prisoners filed out under the guidance of the bailiffs

Hardly had the jury left the room when a piercing shriek was heard, followed by the heavy falling of the wife of Schwab to the floor, to whom the result of the verdict had been interpreted. She was soon carried out by the police and soon recoverd. Mrs. Parsons looked haggard as she started to leave the court room, but maintained a moderate degree of composure. The crowd remained outside for an hour. It is understood the authorities now contemplate the immediate arrest of all persons even indirectly connected with the Haymarket tragedy, for conspiracy and in view of this knowledge, many of the active leaders hearing the outcome of the verdict are preparing to leave the city.

READING THE VERDICT.

During the reading of the verdict the prisoners were hidden from the view of everyone in the court room, by a cordon of police completly surrounding them and whatever immediate effect the reading of the verdict had upon them, could not be discerned. The motion for a new trial, it is expected, will be heard early next month. If it is overruled, Judge Gary will pronounce sentence and fix the date for carrying out the death penalty. The case will go then to the supreme court for review. It is the generally expressed view of lawyers, that the supreme court will not interfere, if Judge Gary refuses a new trial.

Rumor that Mr. Bryard Will Resign.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The World's Washington correspondent says the statement is made by a close friend of Secretary Bayard that as soon as the Mexican trouble is over the secretary will resign.

BLOTTED OUT.

A Sonora Town Entirely Swept Away by Floods.

NOGALES, Arizona, Aug. 20.—News has just been received here that the town of Sario, in Sonora, was entirely swept away by floods Saturday and Monday. The place had a population of 700. Not a house was left standing. Grain fields were flattened to the ground. No estimate of the damage or loss of life is given.

John Smith Killed.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., Aug. 20.—John Smith was killed in a well to-day, four miles east of this city.

CAMP GRANT.

The Second Day and the Scenes in Military Circles—Colonel Zollinger in Command.

This is the second day of the encampment and a pretty correct estimate places the number of soldiers at 600. Last night there were stirring scenes about the city. In the evening Gen. Phil Sheridan and his brother, Colonel Sheridan, went east in their special car. There was a great crowd at the depot to meet the modern Napoleon. Hon. Robert Lowry introduced the chieftain in a pleasant way and then the general greeted his comrades who cheered him to the echo. He regretted he could not wait and attend the encampment, but said he would be here next year if it was the desire of the old soldiers. A general handshaking followed and to a few personal and army friends he opened the commissary department. When the train pulled out a royal artillery salute was fired in honor of the leader of the American army.

Last night at 1:30 Gen. Rosecrans arrived and was escorted to the mansion of Mayor Mülder, by his Honor and Capt. Hugh M. Diehl. The General is a devout Catholic and attended early service at the Cathedral this morning, as is his custom at home. He will visit Camp Grant at 4:30 this afternoon under military escort, and in person he will greet the heroes and promising militia boys. He is assured of an ovation and the distinguished warrior deserves it.

Col. C. A. Zollinger is in command of Camp Grant to-day and the soldiers throng his tent to offer their congratulations. Colonel Zollinger is a born soldier and his comrades love him as a brother who is as true to their interests as he was to the union. He has placed Capt. O. G. Hopkins in command of artillery, Capt. J. M. Tyrrell in command of the militia and Capt. Tom Sullivan in command of the G. A. R. Besides Commander Zollinger has issued these orders:

GENERAL ORDER NO. 1.

For the government of the camp during the encampment, the following rules will be observed.

1. Reveille at 5 o'clock a. m.
2. Breakfast at 6 o'clock a. m.
3. Guard mount at 8 o'clock a. m.
4. Drill at 9 o'clock a. m.
5. Dinner at 12 o'clock m.
6. Dress parade at 5 o'clock p. m.
7. Supper at 6 o'clock p. m.

By command of

C. A. ZOLLINGER, Col. Comd'g.
EMORY G. MELENDY, A. A. A. G.

CIRCULAR ORDER NO. 1.

The officers designated to command the different departments of the camp will be held responsible for the proper police regulations of the camp, and it is expected that great care will be exercised in keeping the camp clean.

By command of

[Official.] C. A. ZOLLINGER, Colonel Commanding.

EMORY G. MELENDY, A. A. A. G.

The encampment is an assured success and all day stranger civilians and military companies and Grand Army posts have thronged into town, swelling the population possibly 1,500 more than it usually is. The general decorations are superb and everyone has a welcome for our guests.

To-night there will be a big camp fire and a great time. This program will be repeated to-morrow evening with General Gibson in command.

TO-MORROW.

The feature is to be the industrial and military parade in the afternoon and the following merchants have signified their intention to join the military in the procession:

INDUSTRIAL PARADE.

We the undersigned business men and manufacturers of Fort Wayne and vicinity, hereby agree to represent our respective enterprises in the industrial parade, to take place Saturday, Aug. 21, in Fort Wayne, during the soldiers' reunion. We intend to display our particular branch of Fort Wayne industry in as attractive a manner as possible, to reflect credit upon ourselves as well as the Summit City.

Business Failures.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The business failures during the last seven days in the United States were 161; Canada, 25.

WHILE on his recent visit to Detroit Lake, in Minnesota, William Penn Nixon, of the Chicago Inter Ocean, accompanied by his wife, visited White Earth Indian Agency. One morning he was chatting with Agent Sheehan, who was dilating upon the rapid progress made by the aborigines, when an Indian girl dashed up to the d or upon a pretty pony, dismounted, and, taking the train of her riding habit on her arm, walked into the agency, presented a certificate from the surveyor in regard to fees paid, and said she wished a patent for her land. "Here," said Agent Sheehan, "is a good illustration of just what we were speaking about." The Indian girl, though a full blood, made an attractive picture in her bright riding habit, and the editor spode up, saying: "By the way, how can I secure some land here?" "Where do you live," asked the red girl. "In Chicago," replied the philosopher of the daily press. "Oh, then, you'll have to marry me in order to obtain land here on the reservation," piquantly spoke up the maid. "But I am already married; here is my wife." "Yes, but she is old; I am young; I hear you can easily get a divorce in Chicago. Come here, marry me, and you can have land." Her entreaties were so earnest and arguments so strong that this editor was compelled to use his utmost strategy in order to prevent completing the "treaty" with the Indian maid.

Three Men of the Time.

I think I am but speaking the sentiments of many Americans when I say that Thomas Carlyle, John Ruskin and one man more, at a great distance, seems to me the three men who, in our day, have spoken wisdom in English; that we could better dismiss into oblivion the utterances of England for thirty years past, including what she thinks her "science," her newspaper gubble, and her parliamentary and pulpit "eloquence," and the "manifestos," of all her "statesmen," so-called, better far than lose the words of John Ruskin, Thomas Carlyle or Alfred Tennyson.—Hugh Miller Thompson.

UNION!

Adding Strength to The Hoosier Democrats.

The Congressional Complication Gradually Clearing Away and Success is Certain as Sunshine.

The Michigan Fusion Tickets—Pennsylvania Democrats and Other News.

POLITICS.

The Democratic State Committee Meets—Other News of Interest.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 20.—The democratic state central committee is in session. The committee will elect a secretary and treasurer and will outline the plan of the coming campaign. Chairman Henderson, of the democratic committee, and Chairman Houston, of the republican committee, have had their heads together and have agreed to suggest to their respective bodies that the campaign be not unavoidably protracted; that it begin on both sides simultaneously, and that the opening date be about September 15. These suggestions will be considered to-day. If they are accepted, a still hunt will be carried on until the date fixed on, when there will be a discharge of oratory and enthusiasm all along the line.

But the Indianapolis district is chiefly concerned in the disposition of the congressional row. The question as to who shall be recognized as the nominee will be before the committee, and the chairman has invited various eminent representatives of both Bynum and Bailey to attend its meetings. The friends of Mr. Bynum are to-day feeling very comfortable in the belief that their candidate cannot be dislodged.

Charlie Jewett was in town to-day. He comes fresh from the third congressional district, where all the talk relates to the retirement of Stockslager from the congressional race. This withdrawal according to Jewett, was unexpected by Stockslager's friends, and was so great a surprise that many of them refused to believe it. It leaves the Stockslager interest in an unfortunate condition, as it claims to have held the only legitimate congressional convention. If a new candidate is not named by this interest, it will be equivalent to a recognition of the claims of the Howard faction. Mr. Jewett expressed himself as personally passive in the matter, but the situation seemed to him to be about as suggested above. With Stockslager out of the race and if no one is named to succeed him, Howard will be assured of election.

It is stated to be Mr. Bynum's purpose to go before the democratic state central committee to-day and express to that body his willingness for the members to pass upon the legality of his nomination, he to abide by the decision of the committee. If the mugwump would do the same, harmony might once more prevail in the democratic camp.

Chairman Henderson, of the democratic central committee, is smiling today over the prospects of his party in Indiana. The withdrawal of Stockslager in the third district, and the settlement of the wrangle in the first, is, to Mr. Henderson, assurance of victory in the state. The only cloud upon the horizon now is the Baily-Bynum contention, and this, the chairman thinks, will be cleared away. He cannot say how or when, but his faith is pinned on something lofty, and he sees the democracy united, victorious and invincible, with the state ticket elected by at least as large a majority as was given to Hendricks, 7,500, the legislature solid in both houses and an unlimited reign in national affairs.

J. J. Todd, of Bluffton, who has been named as a posible candidate on the republican ticket for lieutenant governor, is in the city. He says he is not an avowed candidate, and his name has been used by his friends, not with his consent. He would like to see John H. Baker, of Goshen, nominated, but understands that he is not willing to be a candidate. The reporter judged that Mr. Todd is "in the hands of his friends."

It is understood that the democratic executive committee will be as follows: Hon. Joseph E. McDonald, James H. Rice, John A. Holman, W. J. Craig, Simon P. Sheerin, Israel Curry, of Boone county, and Ebenezer Henderson, of Morgan. Mr. Fronzel will be the treasurer.

D. M. Blount, president of Butler university, was yesterday nominated for congress by the prohibitionists of the Indianapolis district at Greenfield.

Hon. John E. Lamb has challenged his competitor, Mr. Johnston, for a joint debate in each county of the Eigth district. Johnson has not been heard from at this writing. The political pot seems eager to boil in western Indiana.

MICHIGAN FUSION.

The greenback and democratic convention of Michigan met at Grand Rapids and agreed to divide the state ticket. Each adopted a platform and made the following nominations:

The democrats: For lieutenant governor, S. S. Curry; auditor general, Col J. D. Farrer; secretary of state, P. B. Watchel; superintendent of public instruction, David Parsons; attorney general, J. C. Donnelly.

The greenbackers: Governor, Hon. G. L. Yaple; state treasurer, William G. Baird; state land commissioner, William D. Fuller; member of state board of education, J. W. Turner.

PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRATS.

The Pennsylvania democratic convention has nominated Chauncey F. Black, of York county, for governor; Robert Bruce Ricketts, for lieutenant governor; Maxwell Stevenson, congressman-at-large; J. Simpson Africa, secretary of internal affairs; W. J. Brennan, auditor. The platform reaffirms the Chicago national platform; indorses President Cleveland, and laments the recent deaths of Tilden, Hendricks, McClellan, Seymour and Hancock.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Aug. 20.—The republican congressional convention in the Second district of Iowa broke in two, the result being the nomination of Samuel J. Kirkwood and T. J. O'Meara. In the Eighth district of Wisconsin W. T. Pierce was renominated.

GEN. LOGAN'S PARTY.

Received With the Greatest Enthusiasm in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—M. H. De Young, of the Chronicle, entertained General Logan, Governor Alger, General Howard, and a party of about thirty distinguished guests last night and a distinguished assembly greeted them. This morning they start on their overland trip to Portland Oregon, expecting to arrive there Monday next. The generals are received with great enthusiasm everywhere. They will be in the west two weeks yet.

Owen Renominated.

VALPARAISO, Aug. 19.—Hon. W. D. Owen was yesterday renominated for congress by the republicans of the Tenth congressional convention by acclamation.

Big Cattle Trade.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20. About 24,000 cattle have within two days been thrown upon the Chicago market, causing a break of nearly twenty cents per 100 pounds. The best heeves sell at $5.15, and native steers as low as $3.10. About 15,000 hogs were received yesterday. The heaviest packing grades brought $4.50@5.15. With light arrivals, the best sheep command $4.25.

A Dreadful Story.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—M. J. Stören, a bricklayer, residing at No. 482 Second avenue, New York, complained to the district attorney that he was blacklisted by the bricklayers' union until one of his children starved to death and he had no food. If his story proves true, the officers of the union will be indicted for conspiracy.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Consul Greenbaum, of Samoa, who is in Washington, will resign.

Official information of a desire of Geronimo to surrender has been received at the war department.

Died of His Injuries.

LITCHFIELD, Ill., Aug. 20.—Patrick Waters, the man who was seriously injured on the Wabash road here, died yesterday morning. The coroner held an inquest and the railway was held blameless.

SAM JONES told his hearers at Kansas City the other day that the people who accuse him of having "chawed" tobacco since he left Chicago ought to be in the penitentiary. He then added: "A man who is on the way to the New Jerusalem hasn't got time to stop and throw rocks at every dog that runs out and barks at him. I am the locomotive going right on, and the little dogs run out and bark, but I don't stop to throw coal at them."

SCENES!

Of Great Distress at Galveston.

A Portion of the City is Under Water and a Fierce Gale Raged There Last Night.

The Mexican and American Troops Menacingly Face Each Other.

A DELUGE

Swoops Suddenly Down on Galveston.

GALVESTON, Texas, Aug. 20.—1:45 a. m.—A violent easterly gale prevails here, the wind blowing at the rate of forty-five miles an hour and constantly increasing in velocity. The whole southern and southwestern portion of the city is inundated by water and many families have been driven out. The street railway along the beach has been torn up and the waters of the gulf are now breaking over the lower gallery of the Beach hotel. Much apprehension is felt for the families residing at the exposed points and for the shipping anchored in the outer roads. Heavy dashes of rain are falling occasionally and the night is intensely dark.

LOOKS LIKE WAR.

Mexican and American Troops Facing Each Other.

LAREDO, Texas, Aug. 20.—News having arrived here that the Mexican authoritives have fortified a small town some fifty miles up the river called Pan, and placed a detachment of sixty troops there, the commandant of Fort McIntosh, Colonel Bernard, detailed twenty men from this post who left here yesterday and will remain for the present at Palifax, opposite Pan, on this side of the river, as rumors had arrived that the Mexicans had crossed the river to this side. Palafax is a deserted mining town with but few inhabitants, but large ranches are adjacent to it and could easily be plundered.

FOREIGN NEWS.

It is Presented in a Readable Way.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The British steamer Aberdeen, from Hankon for London foundered while leaving the China sea. Part of her crew were drowned.

The stock market is buoyant to day under the influence of the speeches made by the minister in parliament last night.

The Parnellite members of parliament resolved to discuss Irish affairs, especially the Belfast riots, during the debate in reply to the speech from the throne. Mr. Parnell's organ reiterates the declaration that there will be war to the knife against Lord Salisbury. The Tories want time and a policy of coercion is deemed unwise by the Salisbury government. The announcement of an Irish programme will be staved off till February and commissions in the meantime will investigate land and other questions.

BELFAST, Aug. 20.—The Protestants here are very much irritated over Lord Randolph Churchill's defense of the police, who have been engaged here during the riots. The Protestants assert that the police officials have contrived to mislead Lord Randolph and declare that the fact of the case warrant suspicion that a conspiracy exists between the police and Catholics of Belfast.

MELBOURNE, Aug. 20.—The United States man-of-war Mahican has sailed for Samoan Islands. She will remain there during the sittings of the commission appointed to settle the Samoan affairs.

DUBLIN, Aug. 20.—The Duke of Leinster has arranged to sell his tenants a large portion of his Kildare estate on an eighteen year purchase plan.

THE MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Wheat, ½@¾c. lower and fairly active, No. 2 red, Sept., 80½@80¾c. Corn, dull and a shade lower at 52c. Oats, dull and unchanged.

CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—Wheat, closed dull and easier, at 78½c. Corn, easier, at 42½c. Oats dull and weak, at 27½c.

QUICK AS A WINK

We offer earnest men and women the greatest chance of their lives to make money rapidly with our new business of QUICK PHOTOGRAPHY. Easily learned, requires no experience and very small capital. Profits are 300 to 500 per cent., as what costs 50 cents sells for $4 to $6, and daily profits will run from $5 to $25. Can be worked in connection with other business with immense success and run as a side issue with most anything. The apparatus is always ready, light to carry, and by traveling about, visiting the farmer in the field, the mechanic in the shop, the housewife in the sitting-room, your work, in nine times out of ten, get an order to "take a picture" of them "just as they are," or of the baby, the horse, cow, or the favorite pet cat or dog, or a group of the old family, or of the old homestead. You can do as good work as any artist and please all your patrons. It is a steady, pleasant and honorable calling. In connection with the Photo business you can run at nights a Magic Lantern entertainment with an Electro Radiant Magic Lantern and views, advertising it during the day and easily adding $10 to $75 a day to your income, as many are doing. This is easy to learn and very pleasant. We supply all that is needed, all kinds of views, lenses, pictures, etc. Students and teachers will find this very profitable. If you have an earnest desire to better yourself financially, see something of the world, acquire a good start in life, you can do it by taking our advice and sending for particulars. Address

LOCAL LINES.

Charles Munson went to Indianapolis yesterday.

The county commissioners have adjourned until to-morrow.

Wm. F. Paffert and Ariel W. Fordney have been licensed to wed.

The Wabash runs an excursion to Niagara Falls next Tuesday.

Col. I. B. McDonald is in the city. He has been sick for a week.

Mrs. Ulrich Stotz and Mrs. H. Kratsch have returned from Rome City.

Charles E. Reed, of the firm of Pixley & Co., has returned from Utica, New York.

The Philalathean society will give an entertainment at the M. E. college to-night.

Pete Owens has a sign out disguising his nationality. It reads, "Pete Von Owen."

Miss Maggie Pearl, of Lima, Ohio, is in the city visiting her sister, Mrs. Ed. Cartwright.

Miss Minnie Fahlsing, who has been quite sick for the past month, is now able to be out.

Col. and Mrs. C. A. Zollinger are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Johnston, of West Berry street.

Miss Emma Wilkins, of Broadway returned yesterday from a very pleasant visit at Dayton, Ohio.

Ferdinand L. Schust has resigned as assistant ticket clerk of the Wabash. Mr. R. F. Douglass takes his place.

Zollars and Swayne have laid out an addition of 170 lots in South Wayne. The plat was recorded with three streets through it.

THE SENTINEL returns thanks to A. G. Strain & Co., wholesale dealers in grapes, corner o Harrison and Superior streets, for a box of fine fruits.

Miss Zetta and Julia Casanave have returned after a pleasant tour of the eastern cities, accompanied by their friends, Miss L. Ball and A. McGuire.

The following are the bondsmen for Wm. Howitt, under a cloud for arson: Morgan A. Bannister, A. D. Cressler, H. C. Hanna, John C. Brinsley, Fred C. Boltz and W. A. Thomas.

Rudolph Panke was fined by Justice Ryan for provoke on Augusta Brosowske. The bill was $11.50 and Panke paid. Now Augusta is to be arrested for assault on Panke and Justice Ryan will nail him.

Hon. Samuel J. Randall passed through the city yesterday to attend the Irish National convention at Chicago. Judge Lowry met him at the depot and rode as far as Valparaiso, where he was to meet General Sheridan.

The viewers of the Bishop road, in Wayne township, report the following damages: The land of Joseph Mason, $40; Margaret Whethen, $40; Louis Cass, $100; George Godfrey, no damage, as his lands have no highway.

"Miss Jennie McCabe, of Sidney, O., and wife, of Fort Wayne, who have been in the city for the past few days, the guests of Miss Clara Hutton and mother, have returned home. They had a pleasant visit," says the Warsaw Times.

President Hughart and Superintendent O'Rourke, of the Grand Rapids and Indiana, were at Lima recently, talking concerning the proposed branch to Orland. It will be noticed that talk of a Lake Shore extension from Brimfield, and the Grand Rapids and Indiana extension from Lagrange are apt to occur simultaneously.

The Warsaw Union says: "A gentleman by the name of Henry Stanley, of Noble county, was nominated by the pseudo democrats of the 12th district against Judge Lowry. If these democrats only saw our republicans laugh in their sleeves over their foolish conduct, they would not only quit it, but go into the back yard and kick themselves."

The uniform rank C. K. of A. held a meeting last night and elected the following officers: President, Anton Kalbacher; vice-president, J. Rohlo; secretary, J. B. Mouning; treasurer, Louis Fox; executive committee, P. Ryan, Alex. Spereisen, R. Baker. The commandery will escort the Emmet Rifles to the cathedral next Sunday at high mass.

CHOICE BITS.

The News That is Culled for the "Sentinel" Readers.

A tough Uncle Tom's Cabin show was mobbed at Winnemac.

Next week's issue will be the last of the Rome City Clipper.

The wood and coal dealers of Lafayette have signed an agreement to hereafter sell for cash only.

John Brown, a wealthy farmer living in Warsaw, Ind., was robbed of $450 on last Monday during the closing day of the reunion.

The Knights of Pythias members and the Uniform Rank, Louis N. Andrews, had a gala time at Peru Wednesday in their muster in. The rank and file membership numbers thirty members.

Deputy Commissioner Stockslager, of the land office, having received word from the president that he would have to withdraw from his congressional contest in Indiana or leave the department, has chosen the former.

Rev. Sam Jones was advertised to be at the Acton camp meeting and 20,000 people gathered to hear him. Mr. Jones was 500 miles away and never contracted to be there. It was a swindle that reeks.

The forty-seventh session of the Indiana annual conference of the African M. E. church will convene in Vincennes, August 26, and continue one week. The Indiana conference comprises the states of Indiana and Michigan.

Rev. L. W. Munhall, of Indianapolis, well known in this city, was telegraphed to recently to take charge of the Urbana, Ohio, camp meeting. He replied asking whether there were Sunday trains, Sunday gate fees, etc. The reply was that they took gate fees on Sunday, whereupon Dr. Munhall told the managers there was not enough money in Ohio to get him to come there. Dr. Munhall has the courage of his convictions.

Monday evening the weavers employed in the Muncie bagging factory at Muncie struck on account of a reduction in their wages, and walked out. On account of the strike the flax mill was shut down. Wednesday morning new hands were selected from a large number of applicants, work was resumed, and the factory is now running with as large force as before. The strike seems to have been the result of a misunderstanding as much as anything else.

It is fair to believe what the Kendallville Standard, a republican paper, has to say of the anti-Lowry convention. It says over one hundred men participated in the convention. This is no doubt exaggerated. There was perhaps seventy-five men in the convention. Conceding that all of them can control their individual votes, a very doubtful thing, Lowry's majority in the district will be reduced to two thousand and five hundred, provided of course that White can carry his party vote. The Standard does not make the convention the "howling success" the Gazette had it; nor does it get as much "grey hair" in the crowd.

The body of Ray Callen, drowned in Clear lake, Steuben county, has not been recovered, although a professional diver was secured from Detroit. The Angola Herald adds: "The diver goes down and remains from five to forty-five minutes; he gives us the following information: After going out from the shore from five to eight rods, there is a sudden offset, which goes down like a mountain side for 100 feet. This bank is full of springs, which causes the water to be as cold as ice at the bottom; when at the bottom he sinks into mud to his waist; a white substance rises from the bottom, when he reaches it and moves it, which prevents him seeing more than two feet. He finished the day in vain search, and announced that he would work Tuesday forenoon. The diver claims to have taken seventy bodies out of the water this summer. He received a telegram Monday to go to another place."

A Present for General Sheridan.

San Francisco Alta.

The following letter was received yesterday by Gen. Samuel W. Backus.

OGDEN, Utah, Aug. 4, 1886.

Friend and Comrade Backus.

DEAR SIR—I send you, per bearer, a present for Gen. Phil H. Sheridan. As I cannot be there to present it myself, please do me the favor to present it as a substitute for yours truly,

L. M'CANTAY,

The "present for Gen. Phil H. Sheridan" is a wildcat of the wildest possible type, which "one of Phil Sheridan's old scouts" has sent in a box to the care of General Backus. The animal is now in the postoffice, and if any one doubts the genuineness of the brute the doubter can satisfy himself by interviewing the animal, who shows a pair of fiery, wicked eyes and snarls savagely. General Sheridan is not here to receive the present in person, and General Backus, who has no particular use for wildcats, is at a loss to know what to do with the animal.

Attention!

Of dealers is called to the large consignment of California Grapes now at the corner of Harrison and Superior streets.

FRIDAY, AUG. 20, 1886.

A LITTLE boy playing in an old log-house at Richwoods, Mo., lost a marble through the floor, and crawled under the house to get it. He found there a tin pail full of gold and silver coin. The amount proved to be $1,000. It was the property of an old gentleman of the place, who had hidden it there in 1864, and afterward, not finding it readily thought it had been stolen.

SHOW a man that you court his society, and it is a signal for him to treat you with neglect and contumely. Humor his passions, and he despises you as a sycophant. Pay implicit deference to his opinion, and he laughs at you for your folly. In all, he views you with contempt as the creature of his will and the slave of his caprice. Whatever thou mayest do, solicit not friendship.

WHEN the patent granolithic sidewalk pavement is first put down, it is very sticky, but it hardens quickly. This is why a young couple of Bridgeport, who stood on a fresh slab of composition while bidding each other good night, had to be dug out with a pickax. Their shoes were ruined, but they were very grateful to the night watchman who released them, and who promised not to tell.

A GREAT many teachers think it smart to bother and confuse pupils, and seem to believe that such is good mental training. Ancient arithmetics contained what were termed catch problems, only designed for such purposes. The system is all wrong, and results in no good. An exchange asserts that "a teacher recently set her class the following task 'over Sunday': From 880,788,889 deduct 629 until nothing remains. The poor girls figured and figured for hours without making much headway; finally, their tears attracted the attention of the parents. A simple division will show that the figure 629 is contained in the larger one no less than 1,400,300 times. Allowing three deductions a minute and twelve hours' work a day, it would take over 600 days to do what had been given the girls as a Sunday task.'" What ought to be done with a teacher who would give such a task?

The warm weather often has a depressing and debilitating effect. Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes all languor and lassitude.

THE highest building in the world is the spire to St. Peter's Church, Rome, 518 feet.

SINCE Jesse Pomeroy, of Massachusetts, first revealed to a shocked and disgusted world the possibilities of original sin and total depravity, there has been no other paradox of iniquity and enigma of wickedness like him until William Sells, of Kansas, arrived upon the scene. One morning in March last he appeared at a neighbor's and begged them to come to his house, as an unknown man had broken in and, he feared, murdered his parents. The house was found besmeared with blood. The heads of his father, mother, and sister were crushed and their throats cut, while in the boy's own bed lay his brother, his skull smashed in, an eye chopped out and the throat cut like the others. The boy stood outside the house while this investigation was going on, displaying no emotion whatever when told the horrible story. He went quietly away to a neighbor's house, where he slept soundly until the morning. No tracks were found outside the house, while a wash-basin of bloody water, and the washed hands of the boy with the marks of blood outlined on his wrist, showed with absolute certainty who the criminal was. He denied his guilt, declaring that he must have been walking in his sleep or temporarily insane. Many of his friends are inclined to accept that explanation. He had hitherto borne so good a reputation that his relatives and acquaintances cannot make up their minds to credit such unmitigated depravity. Nevertheless he was convicted of murder in the first degree, and sentenced to be hung. Under the Kansas law the Governor has the power to indefinitely suspend sentence, and it is thought the boy will be imprisoned for life. This is certainly the least the community should put up with; for so terrible a sleep-walker, so dangerous a temporary lunatic, ought not to be allowed his freedom even for twenty-four hours. Like Jesse Pomeroy, having once tasted blood, he would be as safe running loose among his fellow-creatures as a man-eating tiger of Bengal.

The pain and misery suffered by those who are afflicted with dyspepsia are indescribable. The distress of the body is equalled or surpassed by the confusion and tortures of the mind, thus making its victims suffer double affliction. The relief which is given by Hood's Sarsaparilla has caused thousands to be thankful for this great medicine. It dispels the cause of dyspepsia, and tones up the digestive organs. Try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

For over a quarter of a century Physicians have prescribed NICHOLS' BARK AND IRON, as a reliable and valuable remedy for dyspepsia and general debility.

FRIDAY, AUG. 20, 1886.

THE CITY.

Roller skates are being turned into buttons.

They hold hammock socials at Lagrange.

Supt. P. S. O'Rourke is at his Petoskey cottage.

Pleasant Lake ice is is being shipped to Fort Wayne.

Miss Mary Vanzant, of Toledo, is visiting her cousins, Misses Lottie and Jennie Pierson, of 144 Maumee street.

Misses Georgia and Constant Lambard, of this city, were the guests of Mrs. James Humphrey, at Bluffton recently.

Col. C. A. Zollinger arrived from Indianapolis last night and brought with him a check for $4,362, back pension money for Andy McClure, of the Rich hotel.

The Angola Herald hoists the name of Judge Lowry for congress after a little wait. The Herald is a plendid weekly paper and shows how sentiment is drifting towards Mr. Lowry.

Mr. and Mrs. George Saylor, of this city, accompanied by Mrs. O. F. Kramer and daughter, of Paulding, Ohio, left this morning for Rome City, where they will remain a short time in Mr. Sayler's cottage.

Clara, the nine year old daughter of Mrs. Minnie Anweiler, of 165 Jackson street, who died yesterday of brain fever will be buried at 2 o'clock, Sunday afternoon in the Lutheran cemetery. The friends of the family are invited to attend the funeral without further notice.

The Adams county commissioners have ordered an election for September 14 to decide whether a tax of $5,000 shall be levied to aid in the construction of the Dayton and Chicago railway through that county to Port Wayne. The vote will doubtless result in favor of the tax.

All kinds of furniture at 19 west Main street.

Col. R. S. Roberston is at Indianapolis.

Frank McGovern is the proud papa of a new girl baby.

The weather indications for Indiana are fair weather, and slightly warmer.

Thieves stole a lot of ropes from the new St. Mary's church, now under construction.

Mayor Muhler discharged a vagrant this morning. This was the extent of the police business.

For good furniture go to 19 West Main street. The Peters' Box and Lumber company makes it.

Miss Mary Sells, who has been the guest of Miss Mary Mommer, returned to her home at Canton, Ohio, to-day.

Mike Cushing and Maggie McDonnell who were married the other day, eloped. The groom is 35 years old and the bride sweet sixteen.

Miss Zadie Troutman and Miss Mollie Croningshield, of Bluffton, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. N. Conover, of East Wayne street.

The Wabash shops will close to-morrow afternoon and Monday afternoon to give the boys a chance to see the procession and sham battle.

Last night the lottery of a cow took place at Martin Weyer's residence. No. eighteen was the lucky one, and the owner can call for his milker.

The five year old son of Prof. Zucker, of Concordia college, climbed on a vehicle near his home on Walter street and in his manouvers he got his foot caught into one of the wheels and the bones of the lad's legs were fractured.

During the past two weeks Superintendent Canniff, of the Fort Wayne branch of the Lake Shore road, has been busy perfecting a steam car, that is, attaching a small upright engine and boiler to a hand car, to save the labor of pumping. After many drawbacks and walk backs between stations, he has now a means of getting from one station to another without the aid of the old fashioned "Armstrong" power, and make better time. Last evening a trip to Jonesville was made in thirteen minutes from Hillsdale, his home.

Yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock occurred the death of Mr. W. A. Lassell, at his late residence, 104 Barr street, of typhoid fever, aged thirty-six years. Mr. Lassell had for a number of years represented the Rogers Fence company, of Cleveland, and was the general agent for the Buckeye feed mill, with an office on West Main street, but of late was located on East Columbia street. He was an exemplary young man, loved and respected by a large circle of friends who will be surprised to learn of his death. The remains were to-day taken to Peabody, Ind., where the interment will take place.

Hon. A. P. Edgerton came here last night from Lafayette. The board of trustees of Purdue university publish a statement exonerating Prof. J. H. Smart, president of the college and formerly of Fort Wayne, from all the charges recently made against him by a dismissed teacher and the Lafayette Journal. Mr. Edgerton and five other trustees sign the report which concludes: "The board cannot at this time fail to express its entire confidence in the character and integrity of President Smart, and it believes that the success of the university will be enlarged and extended by his continued devotion to its interests."

Elegant wardrobes at 19 West Main street.

Interesting local matter will be found on the second page.

A tough Uncle Tom's Cabin show was mobbed at Winnemac.

Mrs. Harry Collins, of 233 Calhoun street, has been ill for the past week.

Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Melsheimer, of Bluffton, were in the city a few hours today.

Miss Minnie Snyder, of Shane's Crossing, Ohio, who is here attending the M. College, is quite sick.

Mr. M. R. Coutant, superintendent of patterns of the Wabash system, with headquarters at Decatur, is the guest of his friends, Horace G. Granger and P. J. Fallon.

The funeral of the late Daniel Oplegger will take place from his late residence, No. 72 Pontiac street, Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Friends of the deceased are invited to attend without further notice.

Foreman Ernest Rehling, of the Wabash shop, has returned from Peru, where he was equipping the passenger engines of the Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago branch with Barnes' spark arrester and smoke consuming stack.

A telegram from Fort Wayne reads: "At a meeting of delegates from Knights of Labor assemblies in northern Indiana held in this city, steps were taken looking to the formation of a state assembly, and a meeting will be called, to be held at Indianapolis during the coming state fair. This movement is purely a matter of business, and has no political significance whatever, except that it will enable the Knights of any state to consolidate and act as a unit on all questions."

The joint representative convention between Allen and Huntington counties meets here to-morrow afternoon in the circuit court room to nominate a candidate for representative. Hon. B. F. Buch will be presented by Huntington county. Mr. W. S. Oppenheim is a candidate from this county. The republican Knights of Labor will present C. A. Bookwalter, a republican from the Gazette, for endorsement, and the democratic Knights of Labor will present George Benson, of the Journal, a democrat, for the nomination.

At Plymouth, during a fit of jealousy last evening, Mrs. V. P. Kirk attempted to throw carbolic acid in the face of her husband. Her son interfered and the acid was scattered over all three. Mr. Kirk may lose one eye, the son, will probably, lose a hand, and Mrs. Kirk is badly burned about the face. Mr. Kirk is a prominent lawyer and an ex-doorkeeper of the state senate. He has not been living with his wife for some time, and they have had a great deal of domestic trouble. She accused him of intimacy with other women.

It is fair to believe what the Kendallville Standard, a republican paper, has to say of the anti-Lowry convention. It says over one hundred men participated in the convention. This is no doubt exaggerated. There was perhaps seventy-five men in the convention. Conceding that all of them can control their individual votes, a very doubtful thing, Lowry's majority in the district will be reduced to two thousand and five hundred, provided of course that White can carry his party vote. The Standard does not make the convention the "bowling success" the Gazette had it; nor does it get as much "grey hair" in the crowd.

DR. YOUNGE.

He Bobs up Serenely With Warrants for Swann, Harper and Sullivan.

Dr. J. W. Younge went to Bluffton last night, and having found evidence of the circulation of circulars denouncing him as a perjurer, etc., he at once filed affidavits against Capt. Scott Swann, Capt. Jim Harper and Tom Sullivan, charging them with criminal libel. Warrants were issued and Sheriff Harry Kirkwood accompanied Dr. Younge to this city this morning. The sheriff did not proceed at once to arrest his men, but was at last accounts consulting lawyers, together with Sheriff Nelson, whom he summoned to assist him.

H. C. Hanna hurried to the encampment grounds and told Swann, Harper and Sullivan not to venture to the city. They are pretty mad, but it is evident more is in store for them as the doctor proceeded at once to Hartford City and will proceed similarly there against the encampment promoters. The doctor hopes to have the gentlemen dragged from their interests here and taken to Bluffton and Hartford City to appear and furnish bond for trial.

Attorneys say, however, they can give bond here, but immediate trouble is obviated as the warrants from Bluffton were found defective and Sheriff Kirkwood at once returned home to mend them. He says he will make the arrests to-morrow, but time will tell.
